Booth 5101 EX*TRACTS Show

Sh Essential Beauty, LLC to launch the first organic, Chinese medicine based skin care line at EX*TRACTS Show.

New York, New York USA, August 2007

Sh Essential Beauty products' combine the ancient philosophy and ingredients of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). Using natural organic ingredients with Chinese medicine principles provides a unique offering in the skincare marketplace. The development of these products grew from a desire to provide a holistic skincare rejuvenation treatment system for a growing population of consumers interested in natural, organic ingredients and paraben free products. Sh Essential Beauty products are formulated with Chinese herbs which have been used in Chinese medicine skin rejuvenation treatments for centuries and are 100% natural with no synthetic additives. Sh Essential Beauty products are uniquely positioned in the growing anti-aging skincare market by offering an innovative coupling of Chinese medicine principles with anti-aging ingredients. The product line promotes beauty from the inside out.

Sh Essential Beauty currently sells 12 different products suitable for all skin types: Three types of Sugar Scrubs; Herbal Bath Salts; Herbal Lip Balm; Cuticle Butter; Facial/Body/Foot Serums; Facial Toner; Washing Grains and Room Spray.

Sh Essential Beauty was founded by Laura Kauffmann and Beth Hooper, two Licensed Acupuncturists and Certified Chinese Herbalists who hold Master's degrees in Traditional Chinese Medicine and maintain private practices in Manhattan.
